Decadent: The Devil Due is a gory and depraved horror masterpiece that will leave you begging for more. With its over-the-top gore, twisted characters, and relentless pacing, this film is a must-see for fans of the genre.

The film stars Bill Moseley as Father William, a priest who is possessed by a demon and turns into a sadistic killer. Moseley is perfectly cast in this role, and he brings a truly evil and menacing presence to the screen. The rest of the cast is equally impressive, with Christa Campbell, AJ Bowen, and Brett Rickaby all giving standout performances.

The film's plot is simple but effective. A group of friends go on a road trip to a remote cabin in the woods. While there, they come across a mysterious man who gives them a deck of cards. The cards are cursed, and they soon begin to turn the friends against each other. As the night wears on, the friends are forced to confront their own demons, both literal and figurative.
