In the heart of London, in the year 1750, a young goldsmith named Thomas Glass is brutally murdered. His only clue is a cryptic message etched into his skin: "Glass & Steele 13." Determined to avenge his friend's death, the enigmatic thief known as Jack Steele vows to find the killer and uncover the secrets behind the message.

As Steele investigates, he soon discovers that the murder is linked to a legendary treasure known as the Goldsmith's Ring.
